

Tackling Hidden Labour Exploitation

Our Statement of Intent

Here at Adelle Foods Ltd, we fully support the government's objectives to eradicate modern slavery and human trafficking. The Board are proactively involved in driving a culture that seeks to identify and remove any risks to our high ethical standards. We encourage every colleague, at every level of the business to take action to bring these abhorrent practices to an end.

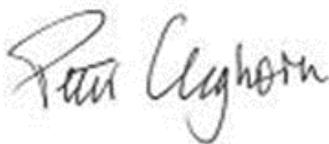

Our vision is to be the preferred choice in Food To Go; delighting our customers and consumers with the perfect mix of quality, innovation, value and service. We supply the UK retail and foodservice sectors with a portfolio of consumer led chilled food products and therefore we are a proud part of the supply chain that moves food from farm to fork in the UK and beyond.

As such, we are dedicated to a rigorous approach to anti-slavery and human trafficking in every aspect of our business.

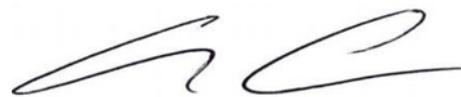

Working in partnership with our customers and suppliers, we are committed to sound governance arrangements and a zero tolerance to labour exploitation or knowledge of the existence of labour exploitation. We also take every opportunity to identify and tackle hidden labour exploitation within our employment practices and agency relationships to ensure that our supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking.

Our annual statement provides information to supplement this policy, including details of our activities, supply chains and actions we will put in place to ensure our corporate activities are free from slavery and human trafficking.

This policy is fully endorsed by every member our Board.

Adelie Foods Ltd

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2018/19

Introduction

This statement sets out Adelie Foods Ltd.'s actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to our business and to put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our own business and our supply chains. This statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1 April 2018 to 31 March 2019.

1. Adelie Foods Ltd engages with a large number of private and public sector organisations on a customer and supplier basis.
2. Our activities take place solely in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Commitment

Adelie Foods Ltd are committed to ensuring all sites are free from;

3. Human Trafficking: the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of persons, by means of the threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person for the purpose of exploitation.
4. Forced Labour: all work or service, not voluntarily performed, that is obtained from an individual under the threat of force or penalty.
5. Harmful Child Labour: consists of the employment of children that is economically exploitative, or is likely to be hazardous.

Recruitment

6. Our recruitment activities take place in the UK; and the recruitment agencies that we use are UK based.
7. All appointed recruitment agencies, labour providers and other organisations in the labour supply are required, under Adelie Foods Ltd terms of the Supply Agreement for Temporary Staff, to ensure that they comply with all applicable laws, regulations and sanctions relating to modern slavery and human trafficking including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015; and any anti-slavery policy adopted by Adelie Foods Ltd

8. The organisation:

- Agrees that job finding fees are a business cost, and will not allow these to be paid by job applicants.
- Ensures that labour sourcing, recruitment and worker placement processes are under the control of trusted and competent colleagues.
- Will ensure that all colleagues responsible for directly recruiting workers are aware of issues around third party labour exploitation and signs to look for and that they will sign the appropriate Compliance Principles declaration (Appendix 1).
- Will provide information on tackling “Hidden Labour Exploitation” to the workforce through a variety of formats including workplace posters, worker leaflets, induction, other training. Our confidential Whistleblowing Hotline is accessible to all, and rapidly addresses any concerns raised.
- Intends that all colleagues working in Supply Chain and Human Resources in particular will receive “Tackling Hidden Labour Exploitation” training
- Will adopt a proactive approach to reporting suspicions of hidden worker exploitation to the Gangmasters Licensing Authority and police.
- Will positively encourage and support employees and agency workers to report such exploitation which may be occurring within their communities through the National Reporting Service

Supply Chain Policy

9. Our procurement activities take place in the UK; and our contractors and suppliers are predominately UK based.
10. Our total procurement spend is in the region of £88 million through a variety of approved suppliers
11. We expect our supply chain partners and other companies we engage with to ensure their goods, materials and labour-related supply chains:
 - Fully comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015; and are
 - Transparent, accountable and auditable; and are
 - Free from ethical ambiguities
 - Individuals with evidence of non-compliance with the Modern Slavery Act in connection with Adelle Foods Ltd supply chains are encouraged to report use the National Reporting Service

Steps to be taken by Adelle Foods Ltd 2018 – 2019

A. Management responsibility and general awareness

We will:

- Report progress to our Executive Leadership Team and our Board
- Need to raise general organisational awareness through circulating the policy document and re-issuing the associated company policies covering recruitment, anti-bribery and corruption. Additionally we will display information posters and providing training for employees, including new employees as part of our on-boarding process
- Raise awareness of this published statement by notifying organisations with which we regularly engage
- Prepare the second annual statement

B. Risk Assessment

- We undertake to carry out a review exercise of this policy against our activities to establish whether the approach we are adopting is in line with emerging best practice

C. Risk Mitigation

We will:

- Act promptly if a compliance breach is identified or flagged
- Use feedback obtained to review and amend our Risk Management Process

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Adelle Foods Ltd slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 March 2019.
